

Engaged Learners Embrace a Growth Mindset, Drive Their Own Learning, and Contribute to the Learning of Others

Engaged Learners embrace a growth mindset by
Being willing to change old counter-productive habits and behaviors and embrace new ones	NY	OK	G	EX
Doing the hard work and practice necessary to learn new complex things	NY	OK	G	EX
Not giving up when things get challenging	NY	OK	G	EX
Learning from mistakes or failure	NY	OK	G	EX
Preparing for class consistently	NY	OK	G	EX
Being fully present and actively engaged in all in-class learning activities	NY	OK	G	EX
Seeking and accepting constructive feedback and criticism	NY	OK	G	EX
Engaged Learners drive their own learning by
Determining the value of what they are learning for their own lives and the lives of others	NY	OK	G	EX
Treating learning as a result of the activity of the learner, not the product of teaching	NY	OK	G	EX
Treating each learning activity or homework assignment as an important part of their learning, seeing each activity as an opportunity to learn, improve, practice, or grow, rather than a task to be completed quickly for its own sake	NY	OK	G	EX

Setting and pursuing their own course-related learning goals	NY	OK	G	EX
Monitoring their progress and seeking additional help or enrichment opportunities	NY	OK	G	EX

Engaged Learners contribute to the learning of others by
Understanding that learning is social; everyone has different strengths, so we can all learn something from others and teach something to others even if we are all new to the skill	NY	OK	G	EX
Providing an inspiring example of a highly-engaged learner	NY	OK	G	EX
Working side-by-side with a colleague to solve problems, talk things through, and develop strategies	NY	OK	G	EX
Motivating someone to persist when things are difficult, helping them see the value of the effort	NY	OK	G	EX
Providing constructive feedback	NY	OK	G	EX	